ORDER

This matter came before the court on defendant, Rodrigo Castillo's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [45]. Counsel for the parties appeared by telephone. The court has been advised that co-defendant, Roberto Nava has no objection to the motion. Counsel requires additional time to complete negotiations and plea paperwork. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [45] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for January 31, 2023, is continued to March 28, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and March 28, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances and without counsel for the parties requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: January 23, 2023.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Michael D. Nelson
United States Magistrate Judge
